My wish for you is that you continue.
Continue to be who and how you are, to astonish a mean world with your acts of kindness."

Her debut book, My Super Mom and her Sidekick Crew, was written as a celebration of family, culture, and heritage. Tameka's mom, Benita, and her grandmother created the blueprint for establishing a nurturing village, and that stuck with Tameka from an early age. As a child, it was powerful witnessing the creativity, discipline, encouragement, and style of these two incredible women in her life. The superpowers they displayed and passed on were something she wanted to celebrate.

The book is a message to children that every family is different, and while every mom is a superhero, it takes everyone working together to be a strong superfamily.

My Super Mom and her Sidekick Crew is just the first of the intended Sidekick Crew Chronicles Series, which will explore and celebrate the various roles and superpowers of the "sidekicks" in our families. Also, Tameka hopes to produce a series of postpartum picture books to energize and motivate new moms while they read to their newborns. Finally, Mrs. Mitchell Says will be a delightful read to promote emotional intelligence and accountability.

When Tameka isn't writing for children and motivating moms, she enjoys spending time with her husband and two beautiful children.
