Maternity Motivation Publishing, LLC and Tameka Mitchell Debut First Children's Book, 'My Super Mom and Her Sidekick Crew'

New children's book promotes the power of family

HIRAM, GEORGIA, OCTOBER 14, 2022 - Tameka Mitchell, author and founder of Maternity Motivation Publishing, LLC, is thrilled to announce the official debut of her very first children's book. The new title, 'My Super Mom and Her Sidekick Crew', is the first in a series of books highlighting the power and love of family.

Mitchell is a mom, slayer of imposter syndrome, and entrepreneur. Maternity Motivation Publishing, LLC, is just one way "Chief Mom Motivator" Mitchell empowers moms to live their best lives and pursue their wildest dreams while also being passionate parents.

Mitchell has long loved to tell stories, and this led to a deep dedication to children's literacy. She wants children to feel fearless and confident. According to Mitchell, when parents read to their children, literacy is boosted, and enduring bonds of love and encouragement are established.

"My mission is to empower a generation of confident readers and for families to see themselves represented," said Mitchell.

Mitchell's love of read aloud time is backed by statistical data from Scholastic, which found that more than 80% of kids and parents across all income levels and child's age enjoy read-aloud time a lot. This study also found that among children ages 6-8, this love for read aloud time has increased eight and nine points since 2016.

'My Super Mom and Her Sidekick Crew' was created to demonstrate to children that each and every family is unique and different in some way, and while moms are superheroes in their own way, they need help sometimes, too. Building a strong family means that all family members must work together, and children should see themselves as an active part of their family. When children identify as one of Mom's sidekicks, they realize that they can do truly extraordinary things.

'My Super Mom and Her Sidekick Crew' is the first of an intended 'Sidekick Crew Chronicles' series that will be rolling out. Each new book will explore and celebrate the various roles and superpowers of the "sidekicks" in every family. Mitchell is also planning a series of postpartum picture books designed to energize and motivate new moms as they read to their newborns. Another upcoming title from Mitchell and Maternity Motivation Publishing, LLC, 'Mrs. Mitchell Says', will be a captivating read promoting emotional intelligence and accountability.

'My Super Mom and Her Sidekick Crew' is now available in formats including paperback, e-book, and hardcover and can be purchased now via <https://maternitymotivation.com>.
